SUBJECT: HERNANDEZ, ARMANDO, DEPUTY #[redacted] CARSON STATION, FOR II
[redacted] DEPUTY #[redacted] CARSON STATION, FOR II
[redacted] DEPUTY #[redacted]
[redacted] SERGEANT #[redacted] CARSON STATION, FOR II

On January 31, 2004, Deputies Hernandez and [redacted] effected a traffic stop of a vehicle driven by Thomas Wilkinson. The vehicle's plate returned with a felony warrant hit. Wilkinson was contacted and detained uncuffed in the backseat of the patrol car. After some investigation, the deputies determined that Wilkinson was in fact the wanted felony suspect. When Hernandez attempted to handcuff Wilkinson, Wilkinson kicked Hernandez. Hernandez then sprayed a two second burst of Oleoresin Capsicum (OC) spray into Wilkinson's face. Wilkinson kicked the OC spray can out of Hernandez' hand. Hernandez and [redacted] pulled Wilkinson from the patrol car by the legs. Wilkinson retrieved Hernandez's OC spray can from the ground and began spraying both deputies. The spray struck [redacted] in the face and eyes. Hernandez then pulled Wilkinson to the ground, which caused all three of them to end up on the ground. Wilkinson continued to resist attempts to handcuff him. During the struggle, Wilkinson was punched and kneed by Deputies Hernandez and [redacted] Wilkinson was also struck with a baton in his ribs by Sergeant [redacted] before being handcuffed and TARPed. Wilkinson was transported to the hospital via ambulance where he was treated for a facial fracture and numerous contusions and abrasions.

On June 10, 2004, the Executive Force Review Committee convened and conducted a review regarding the facts of this case. The applicable policies that were evaluated by the committee were: 3-01/025.00, Use of Force; 3-01/025.10, Unreasonable Force; and 3-01/050.10, Performance to Standards. Concerning:

3-01/025.00, Use of Force, and 3-01/025.10, Unreasonable Force, the Committee determined that the force used by all personnel was reasonable and necessary and in compliance with Department policy.

3-01/050.10, Performance to Standards, the Committee determined that the tactics employed by all personnel in this incident were within Department Policy. The Committee recognized that the tactical concerns in this incident have already been debriefed by the Unit Commander and additional training in prisoner control has been provided.

FO2108179

On Saturday, January 31, 2004, Sergeants Henry Reyes and Elier Morejon and Lieutenant Greg Johnson of the Internal Affairs Bureau, responded to the Carson Station, regarding a Significant Use of Force Incident. The suspect (Thomas Wilkinson) had been admitted into the hospital with facial fracture. When we arrived at Carson Station, we were briefed by Lieutenant Alvarez. Lieutenant Alvarez explained that Deputies Hernandez, [redacted] and Sergeant [redacted] became involved in a fight with Suspect Wilkinson, following a traffic stop of Wilkinson's vehicle. During the fight Deputies Hernandez and [redacted] sustained injuries which required treatment at a hospital. The following summary is based on verbal and written statements from the involved personnel, witness statements and statements from the suspect.

IAB Note: To review a copy of Suspect Wilkinson's criminal history, refer to, Exhibit A.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE'S STATEMENTS:

Deputy Armando Hernandez said he was working a marked patrol assignment, with his partner Deputy [redacted] Deputy Hernandez said he was driving their patrol vehicle when he made a traffic stop, of a felony vehicle, which was driven by a lone male. Hernandez explained that approximately one week prior to the incident, he saw the same vehicle (License # [redacted] parked at a motel. He said when they (he and [redacted] ran the vehicle's license plate, it returned with a felony warrant. Hernandez said on the day of the incident, he saw the same felony warrant vehicle (felony warrant for Thomas Wilkinson) driving west on Lomita Boulevard. Hernandez said he made a U-turn and followed the vehicle as the vehicle turned into an automotive repair shop at Lomita Boulevard and Normandie Avenue.

IAB Note: To review photographs of where incident occurred refer to, Exhibit B.

Hernandez said he activated his vehicle's overheard lights and stopped behind the suspect's vehicle. Hernandez said he did not feel it was necessary to get back up or Code 9 on the vehicle before making the stop. Hernandez explained that the felony warrant was for a non-violent felony [redacted] Hernandez said he contacted the driver of the vehicle and asked him for his name and identification. The male told him that his name was Michael Fadem (one of Wilkinson's akas) and that he borrowed the car from a male named Tom. Hernandez said the male also told him that he did not have any identification. Hernandez said he conducted a cursory search of the male for weapons. Hernandez said he then detained the male in the backseat of his radio car uncuffed, until he could determine the male's true identity. Hernandez explained that the male was being cooperative and he made a judgement call not to handcuff the male before putting him in the radio car. Hernandez said he also 10-22'd (cancelled) the Code 3 back up, because the male was being cooperative and it was not necessary to continue rolling a unit Code 3. Hernandez said he ran a check of the name Michael Fadem via his mobile digital terminal.

Hernandez said when he questioned the male about Michael Fadem's personal information, the male did not answer his questions correctly. Hernandez said Deputy [redacted] searched the male's vehicle and located a driver license for Thomas Wilkinson. Hernandez said the photograph on the driver license matched the male they were detaining. Hernandez said he then advised Wilkinson that he (Wilkinson) was being arrested for the felony warrant. He instructed Wilkinson to turn in the seat and to place his hands behind his back and Wilkinson complied. Hernandez said as soon as he opened the rear passenger door to handcuff Wilkinson, Wilkinson spun in the seat and began kicking him. Hernandez said Wilkinson kicked him three or four times in his chest. Hernandez said he attempted to close the door but both of Wilkinson's legs, were out of the car. Hernandez said he yelled at Wilkinson to stop fighting and to put his hands behind his back. Hernandez said that [redacted] came over and attempted to push Wilkinson back inside the radio car. Wilkinson continued to kick at them wildly and he advised [redacted] that he was going to O.C. spray Wilkinson. Hernandez said he sprayed a two second burst of O.C. spray, directly into Wilkinson's eyes. Hernandez said Wilkinson then kicked the O.C. spray out of his hands. Hernandez said he did not see where the O.C. spray landed. He said he then advised [redacted] to pull Wilkinson from the vehicle, so they could handcuff him. Hernandez said Wilkinson continued kicking at them wildly.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE'S STATEMENTS:

Deputy Hernandez said he broadcast, via his radio, that deputies were involved in a fight. Hernandez said he pulled Wilkinson from the vehicle by his leg while [redacted] assisted. Hernandez said once they had Wilkinson outside of the radio car, he heard [redacted] yell "I got sprayed." Hernandez said he then swung Wilkinson and they all fell to the ground. Hernandez said Wilkinson continued to fight violently. He said he kneed Wilkinson 2 or 3 times on the right side of Wilkinson's ribs. Hernandez said he saw Wilkinson holding his (Hernandez') O.C. spray in his (Wilkinson's) right hand. Hernandez said he then felt the O.C. spray hit the side of his face and eyes twice. Hernandez said he feared that both he and [redacted] would become incapacitated by the O.C. spray. Hernandez said he then hit Wilkinson in the face, with the palm portion of his hand. Hernandez said he ordered Wilkinson to drop the spray cannister.

Hernandez said Wilkinson continued to spray them and he then struck Wilkinson two additional times in the face with his open palm. Hernandez said Wilkinson continued to fight by punching and kicking at him. He said he then struck Wilkinson one additional time in the face with his open palm. Hernandez said he then forced Wilkinson's face the ground. Hernandez said Wilkinson continued to fight by kicking wildly. Hernandez said he then saw two additional deputies [redacted] and [redacted] arrive to assist him. Hernandez saw Deputy [redacted] fall back to a seated position on the ground. Hernandez saw that [redacted] eyes were completely closed and that [redacted] was in pain. Hernandez said he saw one of the deputies [redacted] handcuff Wilkinson's right hand. He said he saw the deputy them pull Wilkinson's right arm to his (Wilkinson's) waist. Hernandez said he grabbed a hold of the open handcuff and pulled it toward where the other deputy (Sergeant [redacted] had Wilkinson's left arm. He is not sure who actually latched the handcuff onto Wilkinson's left hand. Hernandez said he did not see what force [redacted] used during the struggle. Hernandez that he reported his force to Sergeant [redacted]

Deputy [redacted] said Deputy Hernandez made contact with Wilkinson and detained him. [redacted] explained that it was Hernandez' decision to put Wilkinson in the radio car uncuffed. [redacted] said he was searching Wilkinson's vehicle when he heard Hernandez yell at Wilkinson to stop kicking. He said he ran over to the radio car and attempted punch Wilkinson who was kicking wildly at Hernandez. He heard Wilkinson say that he wasn't going to go back to jail, without a fight. He saw Hernandez spray a burst of O.C. spray into Wilkinson's face, the spray seemed to have no effect on Wilkinson. He saw Wilkinson kick the O.C. spray out of Hernandez' hand. [redacted] said the O.C. spray cannister landed on the rear floorboard of the radio car. [redacted] said he assisted Hernandez in pulling Wilkinson from the radio car in order to handcuff him. He said as soon as Wilkinson was out of the radio car, Wilkinson sprayed him directly in his eyes with a burst of O.C. spray. He said he could not see and began to struggle to keep his eyes open. He said he grabbed a hold of Wilkinson's left arm. He said both he and Wilkinson fall to the ground. Hernandez said he held onto Wilkinson's left arm throughout the incident until he saw [redacted] arrive, at which time he let go of Wilkinson's left arm.

IAB Note: To review photographs depicting injuries to Deputies Hernandez and [redacted] refer to Exhibit C.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE'S STATEMENTS:

Deputy [redacted] said he was on routine patrol when he heard the information broadcast of a felony hit, on Suspect Wilkinson's license plate. He said he requested and received authorization to respond Code 3 (lights and siren) to Hernandez' and [redacted] traffic stop. He said as he responded, he heard a Code 4 (No further assistance needed, one being detained) broadcast and he shut down his Code 3 response. [redacted] said he continued driving to the area of Lomita Boulevard and Normandie Avenue. [redacted] said when arrived at Lomita Boulevard and Normandie Avenue, he did not see Hernandez' vehicle. He said he drove north and Normandie and heard Hernandez broadcast that deputies were involved in a fight. [redacted] said he made a U-turn and saw Hernandez' vehicle in the parking lot of a business at the northeast corner of Normandie and Lomita. [redacted] said he arrived at Hernandez' location just ahead of Sergeant [redacted]

Deputy [redacted] said he saw Hernandez and [redacted] fighting with a male suspect on the ground. He said the suspect on his back and was swinging his arms and kicking his feet. [redacted] said [redacted] told him that he was having trouble breathing and could not see. He said he assisted [redacted] away from the suspect and got "Tunnel vision" as he engaged the suspect. [redacted] said he took a position on the suspect's right side and handcuffed the suspect's right arm. He gave the suspect verbal commands to stop fighting, as he tried to get the suspect turned onto his stomach. He said the suspect continued to resist as he pulled the suspect's right arm behind his back. He said the suspect continued to struggle in an attempt to get to his feet. He said he kneed the suspect several times in the ribs and upper torso to gain compliance. [redacted] said he then pinned the suspect's face against the ground with his left knee.

[redacted] said he saw that the suspect's face was covered in blood. He said he kept his knee on the suspect's head to keep the suspect from turning his head and spitting blood or biting one of them. He said the suspect continued to struggle but they managed to cuff the suspect's left hand. [redacted] said at the direction of Sergeant [redacted] he hobbled the suspect's legs and placed the suspect, in a modified T.A.R.P. (Total Appendage Restraint Procedure, legs extended). He said once the suspect was hobbled, the suspect was placed on his side. He said paramedics arrived and the suspect was then transported to the hospital by ambulance. [redacted] added that he saw Hernandez knee the suspect twice, on his (suspect's) left side as they attempted to gain control of the suspect.

Sergeant [redacted] said he responded towards Lomita Boulevard and Normandie Avenue after hearing the felony warrant return on a vehicle run by Hernandez and [redacted] He said when he arrived at Lomita Boulevard and Normandie Avenue he did not see Hernandez' radio car. He said he drove up and down the area, looking for Hernandez' vehicle but could not find it. He said he then heard emergency radio traffic advising that Hernandez was involved in a fight. He also heard an update that Hernandez was at an automotive repair shop at Lomita Boulevard and Normandie Avenue. He saw another radio car pull into the repair shop ahead of him. He said as he ran toward the suspect and deputies, he saw [redacted] holding his face. He said he could smell O.C. spray and believed that [redacted] had been sprayed. He could see the suspect was fighting and struggling with Hernandez on the ground.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE'S STATEMENTS:
Sergeant [redacted] said he saw another deputy [redacted] attempt to control the suspect who was kicking. [redacted] said he stuck his baton under the suspect's arm in an attempt to pull the suspect's arm behind his back. The suspect pulled his arm away from the baton. [redacted] said he then struck the suspect once in the ribs (right side) with the knob end of his baton. [redacted] said he then hit the suspect with the palm of his hand once on the suspect's ribs. He said he put his baton under the suspect's right arm again and pulled the suspect's arm behind his back. He said as he did this [redacted] handcuffed the suspect. He said the suspect continued kicking and he directed [redacted] to hobble the suspect's legs. He said [redacted] hobbled the suspect's legs but did not pull the suspect's legs completely up towards the handcuffs. He saw that [redacted] had been O.C. sprayed and he saw that Hernandez was bleeding from his hand and arm. [redacted] added that Hernandez then proceeded to tell him that the suspect had begun to fight when he (Hernandez) tried to handcuff him.

WITNESS STATEMENTS:
Mr. [redacted] said he was working at his [redacted] when he saw a male (Wilkinson) being arrested. [redacted] said he saw the male being placed into the backseat of a police car. He said approximately 10-15 minutes later, he heard screaming. He saw the male suspect spraying something in the face of one of the deputies. [redacted] said he then saw the shorter deputy (Hernandez) punching the suspect. [redacted] said he saw the suspect and deputies fall to the ground. [redacted] said once the suspect and deputies fell behind the radio car, he was unable to see anything else.

Mr. [redacted] said he was working at his [redacted] when he saw a male suspect, spraying one of the deputies. He said it looked like the deputies were trying to take the suspect out of the patrol car. He saw the deputies struggling on the ground attempting to control the suspect. He said other deputies arrived and helped handcuff the suspect. [redacted] believes the suspect was still inside the car when he sprayed the deputy.

INVOLVED SUSPECT'S STATEMENT:
Suspect Thomas Wilkinson said the deputies pulled him over, searched and detained him in the backseat of their radio car. Wilkinson said that initially he gave Hernandez a false name but he later told Hernandez his correct name. He explained that he had a [redacted] out for his arrest. He said that Deputy [redacted] searched his vehicle while he was being detained. Wilkinson said that Hernandez told him that he was going to be arrested but did not tell him why. Wilkinson said he told Hernandez that he wasn't going to get out of the radio car. He said Hernandez then said "The fuck you ain't getting out of the car." He said Hernandez then pulled out a cannister of "Mace" and sprayed him in the face. Wilkinson said the spray burned his face and he started kicking. Wilkinson said he is not certain if his kicks actually made contact with the deputies. Wilkinson denied kicking the cannister of "Mace" out of Hernandez' hands. Wilkinson said that [redacted] then grabbed him by his leg and dragged him out of the car and onto the ground. He said he landed on the ground on his side.

INVOLVED SUSPECT'S STATEMENT:
Wilkinson said one of the deputies then punched him in the nose three or four times. He said one of the deputies punched him in the eye and started "Hammering" his head into the pavement. He said while he was on the ground, both deputies began beating him. He said he told the deputies "That's enough, That's enough." He said one of the deputies dropped his cannister of "Mace" on the ground. He said he grabbed the cannister, and sprayed the "Mace" in the air. Wilkinson said he heard one of the deputies say "God damm, you got me." Wilkinson said he never intentionally sprayed the deputies with the "Mace." Wilkinson explained that he just wanted the deputies to stop hitting him. He said that after he sprayed the "Mace" both deputies then began to "Kick the shit" out of him. He said he was kicked in the neck, chest and left eye. Wilkinson said there isn't any part of his body that doesn't hurt. Wilkinson said he must have been kicked at least 40 times and punched at least 20 times. Wilkinson said that he never resisted the deputies attempts to handcuff him. Wilkinson said that he had been in a fight about a month ago and that he sustained a blackened left eye during that fight. Wilkinson added that even after he was handcuffed he was kicked and beaten.

IAB Note: A check of the Record Bureaus of Torrance and Redondo Beach Police Departments, revealed no record of a fight listing Wilkinson as either a suspect or victim.

IAB Note: To review photographs depicting injuries to Wilkinson refer to, Exhibit D.

DEPUTY INJURIES:
Deputy [redacted] sustained O.C. spray exposure to his face, eyes and neck. [redacted] also sustained a bruise to his left knee. Deputy Hernandez sustained a sprained right wrist and abrasions to the knuckles of his right hand.

SUSPECT INJURIES:
Suspect Wilkinson sustained numerous abrasions to his face, arms and hands, two black eyes, contusions to his head, face and upper torso and a fractured left orbital. The orbital fracture to Wilkinson's face could have been caused by a blunt force, according to Dr. Preciado. Dr. Preciado also told Lieutenant Alvarez that the fracture appeared calcified as if it was old injury but that he could not be certain.
